

CHIP
SEALS

Chip Seal

- An application of asphalt emulsion covered by a layer of one-sized chips (3/8 in.)
- Also known as surface treatment, seal coat, or armor coating

Uses of Chip Seal

- Wearing course
- Waterproofing the surface
- Sealing small cracks
- Improving surface friction

Conditions for Success

- Structurally sound
- Patched and cured
- Clean surface with no loose fragments
- Dry surface
- Pavement temperature > 70°F

Laboratory Tests

Design
Test

Sweep Test

Vialit Test

Optimum Configuration

Optimum Rock Distribution

Embedment Check

Preparation & Weather

- Survey pavement condition
- Patch, seal, and cure
- Air temperature $> 50^{\circ}\text{F}$
- Pavement temperature $> 70^{\circ}\text{F}$
- Dry surface
- No threat of rain

Patching and Crack Sealing

Construction Procedure

- Clean with power broom
- Spray binder
- Spread aggregate immediately
- Roll immediately
- Allow binder to cure
- Sweep excess aggregate

Brooming

Binder Spraying

Rock Application

Rolling

Light Brooming

Traffic Control

- Open road to traffic after rolling and removing excess chips
- Limit speed to 15 - 25 mph for 2 hours
- Use pilot car

Blocked Nozzles

Nozzle Angle

Nozzle Angle

Spray Bar Height

Calibration of Chip Spreader

Transverse Joints

Chip Seal Performance

- 4 to 7 years
- Pavement condition before application is critical

Variations on Chip Seal

- Alternate binders
- Double and triple chip seals
- Precoated chips
- Light-weight chips
- Sand seal
- Scrub seal
- Sandwich seal
- Cape Seal

Alternative Binders

- Polymer modified emulsion
- Crumb-rubber modified emulsion
- Asphalt cement

Double Chip Seal

- Two alternate applications of emulsion and aggregate
- Each successive layer = 1/2 of preceding layer

First Layer
3/4 in. Chips

Second Layer
3/8 in. Chips

Precoated Chips

- Eliminate dust
- Improve bond
- Coated chips should separate and flow readily thru spreader
- Binder is asphalt cement

Light-Weight Chip Seal

- Use light-weight chips instead of regular chips
- Used to reduce the risk of breaking windshields

Sand Seal

- Asphalt binder followed by sand cover
- Binder is rapid or medium setting emulsion
- Mostly for low volume roads

Scrub Seal

Application of sand or small-sized aggregate on broomed layer of polymer-modified bitumen

Scrub Seal

Sandwich Seal

One application of binder between two layers of chips

Small Chips (3 – 5 mm)

Emulsion

Large chips (5 – 10 mm)

Cape Seal

- Chip seal topped with either slurry seal or micro-surfacing
- Named after Cape Province of South Africa

Micro-Surfacing on Chip Seal

A Wife is a wife, no matter who you are !!

SLURRY SEALS

Slurry Seal

A slurry mixture of:

- Quick set emulsion
- Well-graded sand
- Mineral filler (in most cases)
- Water
- Additives to help setting (optional)
- Single Coat = $\frac{1}{4}$ in. thick

Uses of Slurry Seal

- Seals minor cracks and voids
- Retards surface raveling
- Improves surface friction
- Delineates pavement areas

Conditions for Success

- Structurally stable
- No cracks or movements under traffic
- No rutting or shoving

Slurry Seal Types

TYPE	GENERAL USAGE
I	Crack sealing (Low traffic)
II	Corrects raveling (Moderate to heavy traffic)
III	Fills minor irregularities & restores friction

Construction Considerations

- Seal cracks, patch, & cure
- Broom
- Tack coat if dry or raveled
- Continuous operation
- Pre-wet if hot weather

Brooming

Slurry Machine

Slurry Machine

Loading Sand

Adding Emulsion

Slurry Mixer

Spreader Box

Slurry Application

Manual Spreading

Construction Considerations

- Roll only at locations subjected to abrasion
- Light pneumatic tire roller
- Start rolling when clear water can be pressed out with a piece of paper

Slurry Seal Performance

3 - 5 years depending on

- Traffic
- Environment
- Existing pavement
- Quality of materials & design
- Construction Quality

MICRO-
SURFACING

Micro-Surfacing

A thin surface paving system (3/8 – 1/2 in.) composed of

- Quick-set Polymer-modified emulsion
- Manufactured crushed stone
- Mineral filler
- Water
- Additives (as needed)

Micro-Surfacing

- Can be viewed as polymer-modified slurry seal
- Except
 - Cures faster
 - Placed in a thicker layer

Uses of Micro-Surfacing

- Raveled & flushed surfaces
- Oxidized surfaces
- Crack/void filing
- Minor leveling
- Interlayer

Conditions for Success

- No large cracks or movements under traffic
- No excessive irregularities or shoving
- Moderate / high volume roads

Pavement Preparation

- Repair/seal joints & cracks
- Cure sealant
- Tack coat if:
 - extremely dry, raveled
 - concrete
- Pre-wet during hot weather

Construction Equipment

1. Self-propelled machine (Continuous operation)
2. Truck-mounted unit (Batch operation)

1. Self-propelled Machine

Self-propelled, front-feed, continuous mixing machine

2. Truck-Mounted Unit

Mixer

Spreader
Box

Special Spreader Box for Rut Filling

The Scratch Coat is Generally 150 mm Less Than the Width of the Lane

Rut
Box

Traffic Control

Open road to traffic one hour after rolling

5-Year-Old Project

Micro-Surfacing Cost

- Unit cost > hot-mix asphalt
- Cost is offset by
 - Thin layers
 - No appurtenance adjustment
 - Easier traffic control

Effectiveness of Maintenance Treatments

- Depends on pavement condition
- The better the condition before the treatment, the more effective the treatment is
- Varies with the type of treatment

Chip Seal

Distress Type	Extent of Problem
	Minor	←————→	Major
Fatigue Cracking	Effective		No Impact	Effective
Linear / Block Cracking	Effective	Marginal	No Impact	Marginal
Rutting	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact
Raveling	Effective	Effective	Marginal	Marginal
Flushing/Bleeding	Effective	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact
Roughness	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact
Friction Loss	Effective	Effective	Effective	Effective
Moisture Damage	Effective	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact
Shoving	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact

Microsurfacing

Distress Type	Extent of Problem
	Minor	← →	Major
Fatigue Cracking	Green		Red	Effective
Linear / Block Cracking	Green	Yellow	Red	Marginal
Rutting	Green	Yellow	Red	No Impact
Raveling	Green	Green	Yellow
Flushing/Bleeding	Green	Yellow	Red
Roughness	Green	Yellow	Red
Friction Loss	Green	Green	Green
Moisture Damage	Green	Red	Red
Shoving	Red	Red	Red

Milling with Thin HMA Overlay

Distress Type	Extent of Problem
	Minor	←————→	Major
Fatigue Cracking	Red	Red	Red	Effective
Linear / Block Cracking	Red	Red	Red	Marginal
Rutting	Green	Yellow	Red	No Impact
Raveling	Green	Yellow	Red
Flushing/Bleeding	Green	Yellow	Red
Roughness	Green	Yellow	Red
Friction Loss	Green	Green	Green
Moisture Damage	Green	Red	Red
Shoving	Red	Red	Red

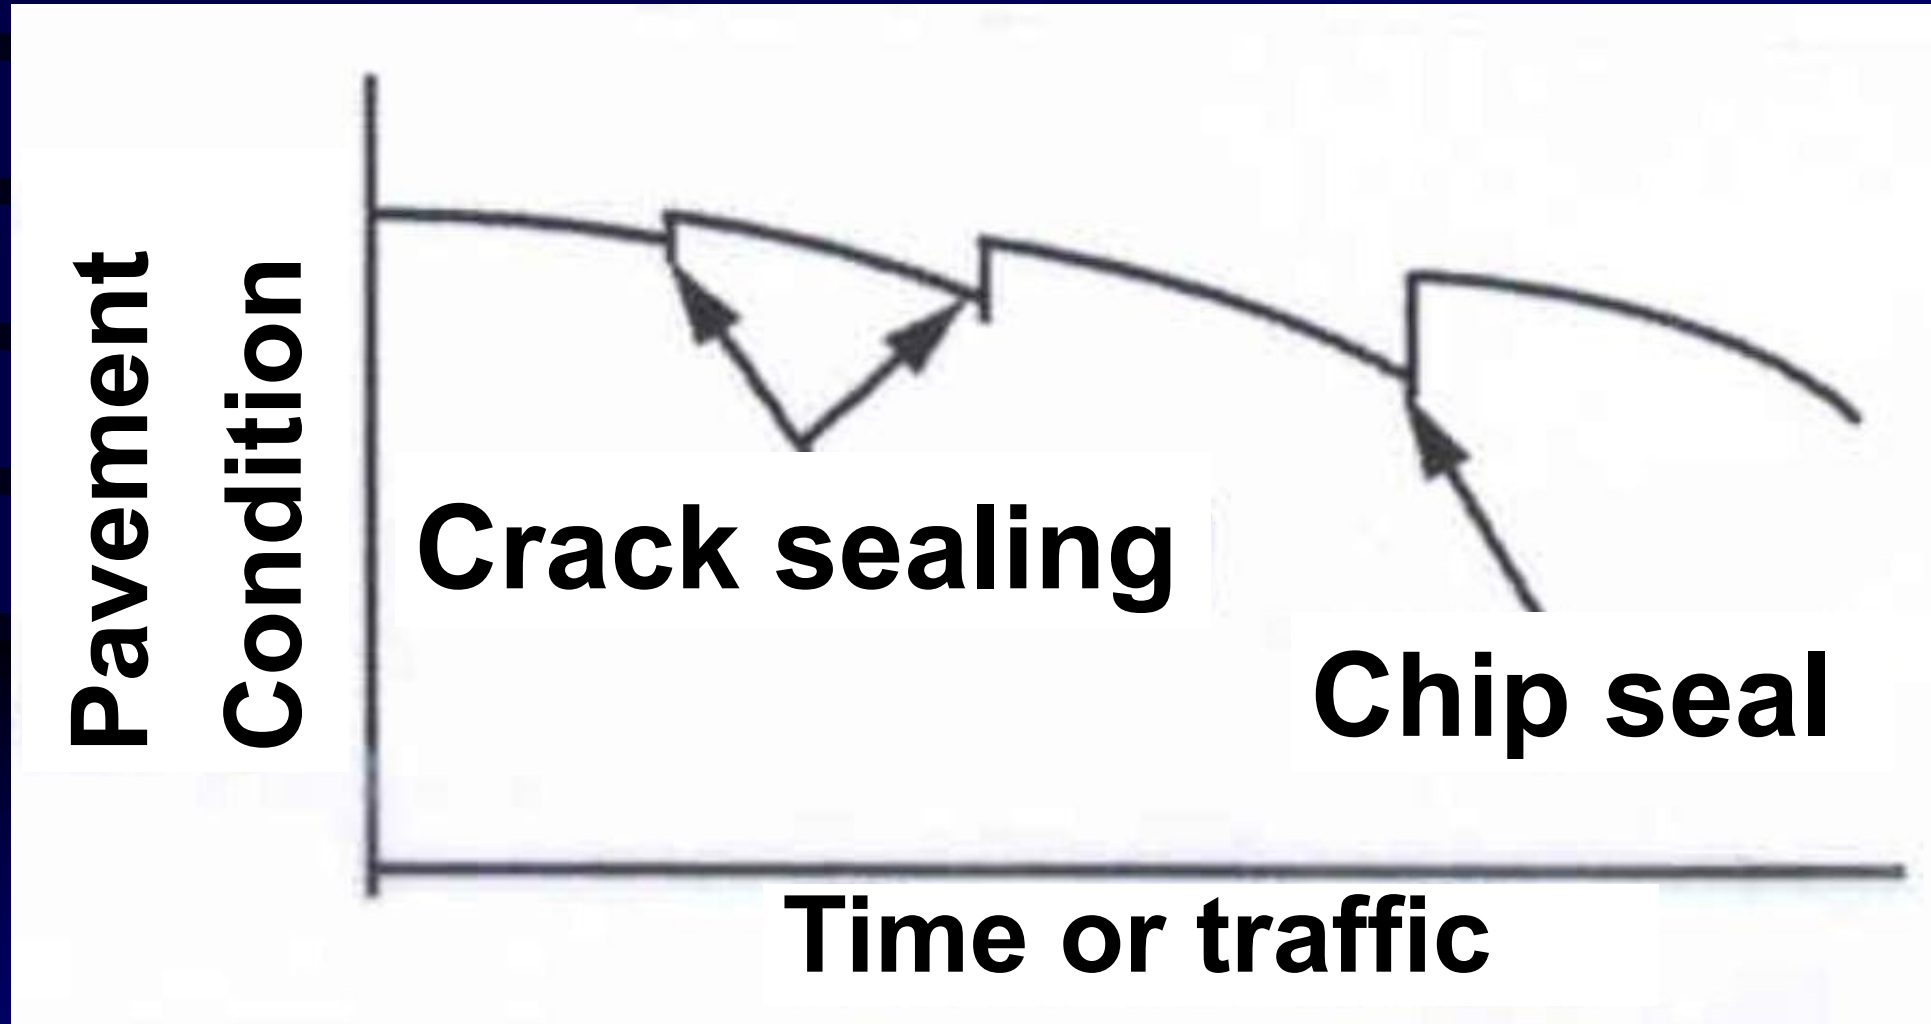

Ultrathin Bonded Wearing Course (Novachip)

Distress Type	Extent of Problem
	Minor	↔	Major
Fatigue Cracking	Yellow		Red	Effective
Linear / Block Cracking	Yellow		Red	Marginal
Rutting	Red		Red	No Impact
Raveling	Green	Yellow	Red
Flushing/Bleeding	Green		Red
Roughness	Green		Red
Friction Loss	Green	Green	Green
Moisture Damage	Yellow		Red
Shoving	Red		Red

Cold & Hot In-Place Recycling

Distress Type	Extent of Problem
	Minor	↔	Major
Fatigue Cracking	Effective	Marginal	No Impact	Effective
Linear / Block Cracking	Effective	Marginal	No Impact	Marginal
Rutting	Effective	Effective	Marginal	No Impact
Raveling	Effective	Effective	No Impact	No Impact
Flushing/Bleeding	Effective	Effective	Marginal	No Impact
Roughness	Effective	Effective	Effective	No Impact
Friction Loss	Effective	Effective	Effective	No Impact
Moisture Damage	Effective	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact
Shoving	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact	No Impact

Periodic Applications

Monitoring Performance

Collect

Store

Analyze

